About Lancelot Andrewes Press

Lancelot Andrewes Press is the publishing arm of the Fellowship of Saint Dunstan, a non-profit organization for the advancement of historic Christian Orthodoxy, as expressed by the liturgical and devotional usages of traditional English Christianity, particularly as embodied in the texts of traditional editions of the Book of Common Prayer, the 1611 Authorised Version Bible, and related texts, commentaries, hymnals and chant books.

The Press is named after Lancelot Andrewes (1555 – 1626), sometime Bishop of Winchester – a pious soul, an eminent divine, an insightful preacher, a learned scholar, a careful biblical exegete, an accomplished linguist and a devoted pastor.

Book of Common Prayer

The Book of Common Prayer was first published in England and ordered to be used on Whitsunday, 1549. The idea was to put the Holy Mass and Morning and Evening Prayer, the Litany, the Psalms of David, the Lessons for the Year, with the Orders for Baptism, Marriage, and so forth, in one book.

This beautifully bound and typeset book sets forth the worship of God offered in English based on the examples of the Authorised Version of the Bible (1611), the Psalter, and centuries of English usage. Our small contribution is to make a Prayer Book that is more comprehensive and organized in a rather more linear order.

The Book of Common Prayer is $10 per book for schools and churches, while individuals will pay $15.00 in the US, $24.00 for Canada, and $27.00 for overseas. Be sure to check andrewespress.com for special promotional pricing.

The Canon of the Mass

(According to the Gregorian Rite)

The Preface ended, the Priest extending, slightly raising, and joining his hands, raising his eyes to heaven, and at once lowering them, bowing profoundly before the Altar, with his hands placed upon it, says:

THEREFORE, most gracious Father, through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, we humbly pray and beseech thee, He kisses the Altar and with hands joined before his breast, says: that thou accept and bless He signs thrice over the Host and the Chalice together, saying: these ✠ gifts, these ✠ offerings, these ✠ holy and unspotted sacrifices, With extended hands he proceeds: which, first, we offer unto thee for thy holy Catholic Church: that thou vouchsafe to keep it in peace, to guard, unite, and govern it throughout the whole world: together with thy servant our Chief Bishop N., our Bishop N., and all the Orthodox, and those who profess the Catholic and Apostolic faith.

Commemoration for the Living
REMEMBER, O Lord, thy servants and handmaids N. and N., He joins his hands, and prays awhile for those for whom he intends to pray: then with extended hands proceeds:

and all here present whose faith and devotion unto thee are known and manifest, for whom we offer unto thee: or who themselves offer unto thee this sacrifice of praise, for themselves, and for all to whom they are bound: for the redemption of their souls, for the hope of their salvation and safety: and who render their vows unto thee, the eternal, living and true God.
